The Baltimore Museum of Art seeks innovation and excellence in an artistic program that focuses on art of the modern era, from the 19th century to the present. The Museum is committed to creating an environment that inspires creativity, encourages learning, and fosters human understanding in a place where everyone feels welcome.

Each symbol on the following pages represents an education or community partner that used the services of The Baltimore Museum of Art from July 2012 to June 2013.

THE BALTIMORE MUSEUM OF ART: Constituency by Median Household Income

The Baltimore Museum of Art serves education and community organizations located in economically diverse census tracts. Approximately 43% of its participating community partners are located in areas with a median household income of less than $41,000, as tracked by 2010 U.S. Census data.

THE BALTIMORE MUSEUM OF ART: Impact Statement

Inspired by meaningful encounters with The BMA's collection and artistic program, visitors will expand their creative thinking, deepen their understanding of human experiences, and value the Museum as a place for personal learning and civic engagement.

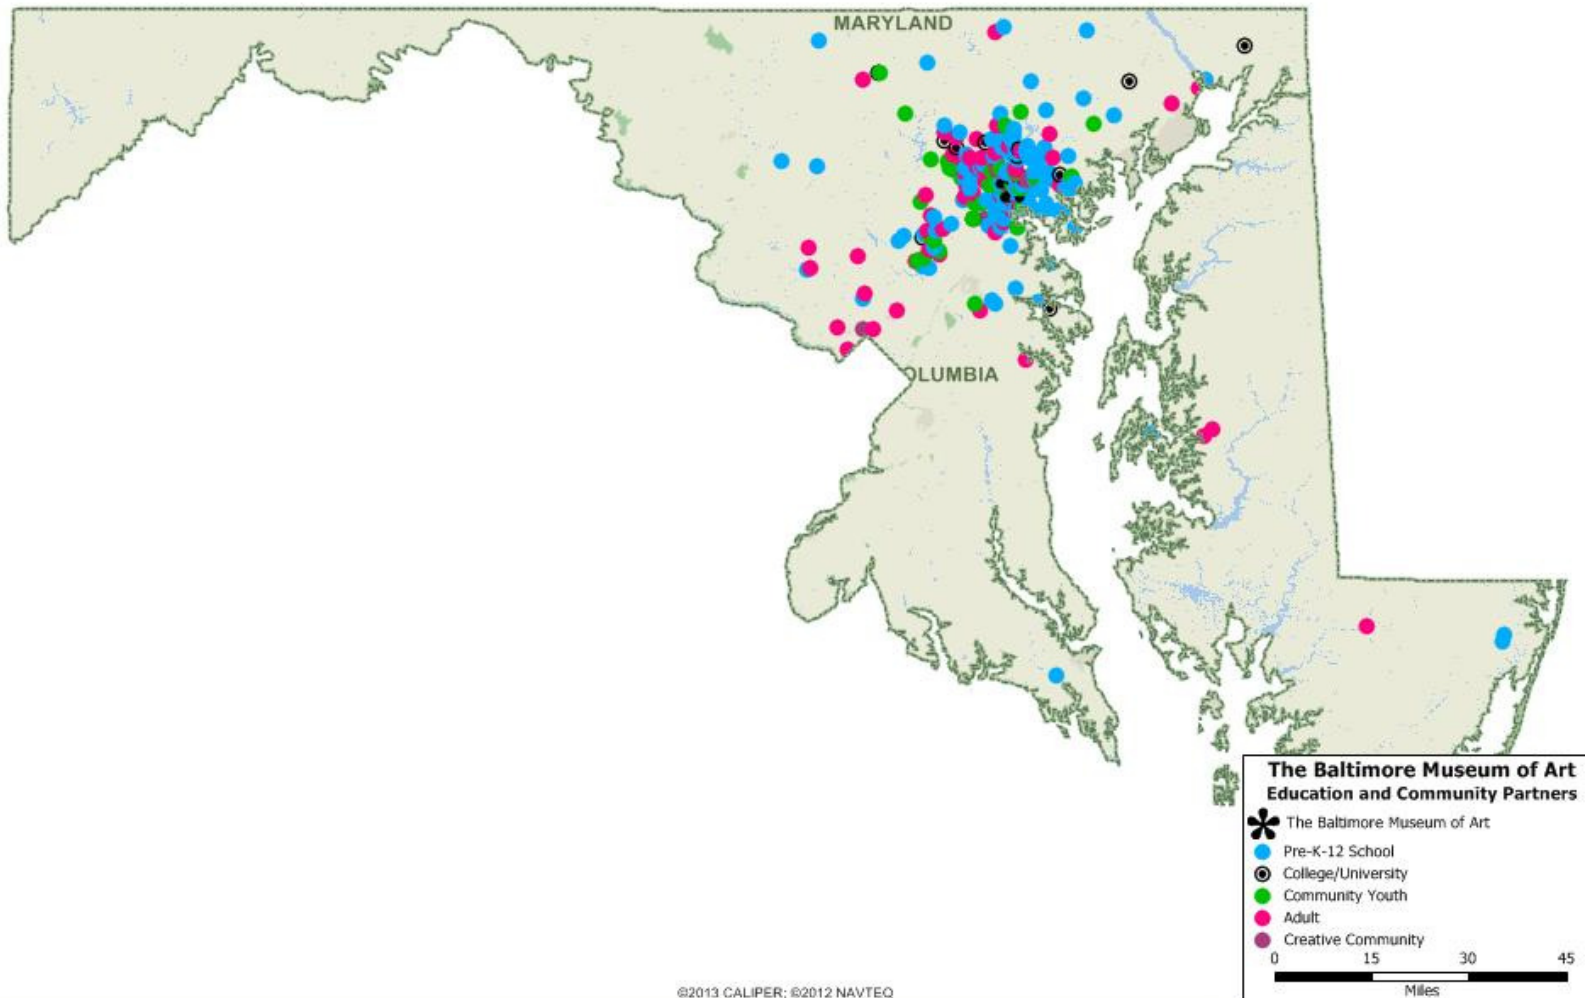

THE BALTIMORE MUSEUM OF ART: Partnerships in the State of Maryland.
